- User should be able to rate the specified mood for a location
  - Acceptance Criteria
    - Invalid ratings should be prevented. Invalid ratings include:
      - Out of range ratings (1-5)
      - Incorrect data type
    - Choose mood to rate
    - Ratings should be stored in the moods table in the database
- User should be able to see all mood ratings for a location
  - Acceptance Criteria
    - User should be able to choose any location within range
    - Moods should be displayed in descending order by rating
- User should be able to filter locations based on mood
  - Acceptance Criteria
    - A user should be able to select any mood from the available choices
    - Locations should be accurately displayed on the map
    - There should be a visual cue to correlate displayed locations to selected mood